CHABAD CHAI - SOUTH TAMPA

CHABAD OF TAMPA BAY

CHABAD AT WIREGRASS

Dear Friend,

With great pleasure we present Chabad's calendar and program guide for the year 5781 - 2020/2021. This calendar is dedicated to the Rebbe, whose teachings and example are a never-ending source of life for all mankind. The Rebbe's passionate and uncompromising love for every Jew is legendary. His insistence that all Jews are equal, regardless of background, affiliation or level of observance - are the beacons of truth that continue to guide and inspire us in Tampa Bay and throughout the world. Chabad is devoted to strengthening Jewish identity, and so we reach out with a multitude of programs to make Judaism an accessible reality to all Jews. No matter how you see yourself, at Chabad we see you as Jewish. No labels. No differences.

As we look to the coming year, much still remains uncertain. One thing that is definite, however, is that we are fully committed to providing our community the quality Jewish experience you have come to know and love. It is thanks to the blessings of G-d, the vision of the Rebbe, your generous support, and the dedication of staff and volunteers that Chabad has been able to be here for the community throughout this crisis. While some of our programs may be temporarily halted the desire for a sense of stability, spirituality, and support is ever-present and we remain together in heart and soul with our doors wide open for all in need.

At Chabad you are family. We welcome you to participate in celebrating the joys of Judaism and make Chabad your home for everything Jewish.

With best wishes for a happy, healthy and sweet New Year.

Sincerely,
Rabbi Yossie & Sulha Dubrowski

ROSH HASHANAH

Rosh Hashanah in Hebrew literally means, "Head of the Year," and as its name indicates, it is the beginning of the Jewish year. The anniversary of the creation of Adam and Eve, it is the birthday of mankind, highlighting the special relationship between G-d and humanity.

The primary theme of the day is our acceptance of G-d as our King. The Kabbalah teaches that the renewal of G-d's desire for the world, and thus the continued existence of the universe, is dependent upon this. We accept G-d as our King, and G-d is aroused, once again, with the desire to continue creating the world for one more year.

The central observance of Rosh Hashanah is the sounding of the shofar, the ram's horn. The shofar is sounded on both days of Rosh Hashanah. The sounding of the shofar represents, among other things, the trumpet blast of a people's coronation of their king. The cry of the shofar is also a call to repentance; for Rosh Hashanah is also the anniversary of man's first sin and his repentance thereof, and serves as the first of the "Ten Days of Repentance" which will culminate in Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

YOM KIPPUR

Yom Kippur commemorates the day that G-d forgave the Jewish people for the sin of the Golden Calf. Moses spent nearly three months on top of Mount Sinai pleading with G-d for forgiveness, and on the tenth of Tishrei it was finally granted: "I have pardoned, as you have requested."

From that moment on, this date, henceforth known as the Day of Atonement, is annually observed as a commemoration of our special relationship with G-d, a relationship that is strong enough to survive any rocky bumps it might encounter. This is a day when we connect with the very essence of our being, which remains faithful to G-d regardless of our outward behavior.

And while it is the most solemn day of the year, we are also joyful, confident that G-d will forgive our sins and seal our judgment for a year of life, health, wealth and happiness.

SUKKOT

For forty years, as our ancestors traversed the Sinai Desert prior to their entry into the Holy Land, miraculous "clouds of glory" surrounded and hovered over them, shielding them from the dangers and discomforts of the desert. Ever since, we remember G-d's kindness and reaffirm our trust in His providence by dwelling in a sukkah – a hut of temporary construction with a roof covering of branches – for the duration of the autumn Sukkot festival. For seven days and nights, we eat all our meals in the sukkah – reciting a special blessing – and otherwise regard it as our home.

Another mitzvah that is unique to Sukkot is the taking of the Four Kinds: an etrog (citron), a lulav (palm frond), three hadassim (myrtle branches) and two aravot (willow branches). The Midrash tells us that the Four Kinds represent the various types and personalities that comprise the community of Israel, whose intrinsic unity we emphasize on Sukkot.

CHANUKAH

The kindling of the Menorah is the focal point of the Chanukah holiday, symbolizing religious freedom and the strength of the Jewish spirit. The menorah is kindled on each of the eight nights of Chanukah, this year beginning on Sunday, December 2nd. The Menorah is placed at the left side of a central doorway of the home, or at the front window. The candles should be lit immediately following sunset, and should be prepared so that they will remain lit for at least a half hour after dusk. In keeping with Shabbat observance, the Menorah is lit before the Shabbat candles on Friday evening and after the Havdalah ceremony at the end of Shabbat.

Gather all family members and light the Shamash, the service candle. Recite the proper blessings and then light the candles beginning from the left. Then place the Shamash at its designated place, separated from the other candles.

The World's Happiest Kept Secret

COURSE OVERVIEW

Code to Joy, this year's course at the Rosh Chodesh Society, is based on a simple premise:

Happiness isn't just something that happens to you; it's an approach, an attitude, an understanding of the world and your place in it – it's something you do, a code that you can crack.

Over seven months, step by step, Code to Joy explores some of the underlying ideas and beliefs that sustain a truly joyful life. Fusing classic Jewish concepts with the panoramic perspective of Chassidic thought, along with a sprinkling of insights and research from modern psychology, you'll learn how to find self-acceptance without complacency, to confront the past without being burdened by it, to be comforted by faith without being confined by it, to give to others and gain even more, and so much more.

We hope you'll discover the Code to Joy along with us.

PURIM

The jolly festival of Purim is celebrated every year on the 14th of the Hebrew month of Adar (late winter/early spring). It commemorates the (Divinely orchestrated) salvation of the Jewish people in the ancient Persian empire from Haman's plot "to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews, young and old, infants and women, in a single day," as recorded in the Megillah (book of Esther).

PURIM OBSERVANCES

- Reading of the Megillah (book of Esther), which recounts the story of the Purim miracle. This is done once on the eve of Purim and then again on the following day.
- Giving money gifts to at least two poor people.
- Sending gifts of two kinds of food to at least one person.
- A festive Purim feast, which often includes wine or other intoxicating beverages.

PESACH

The eight-day festival of Passover is celebrated in the early spring and it commemorates the emancipation of the Israelites from slavery in ancient Egypt. And, by following the rituals of Passover, we have the ability to relive and experience the true freedom that our ancestors gained. The holiday is rich with traditions meant to help us achieve "freedom" in our own lives.

MATZAH

Instead of chametz, we eat matzah— flat unleavened bread. It is a mitzvah to partake of matzah on the two Seder nights (see below for more on this), and during the rest of the holiday it is optional.

SHAVUOT

The holiday of Shavuot is a two-day holiday, beginning at sundown of the 5th of Sivan and lasting until nightfall of the 7th of Sivan (May 16-18, 2021).

The word Shavuot (or Shavuos) means "weeks." It celebrates the completion of the seven-week Omer counting period between Passover and Shavuot.

The Torah was given by G-d to the Jewish people on Mount Sinai on Shavuot more than 3,300 years ago. Every year on the holiday of Shavuot we renew our acceptance of G-d's gift, and G-d "re-gives" the Torah.

The giving of the Torah was a far-reaching spiritual event—one that touched the essence of the Jewish soul for all times. Our sages have compared it to a wedding between G-d and the Jewish people. Shavuot also means "oaths," for on this day G-d swore eternal devotion to us, and we in turn pledged everlasting loyalty.

THE THREE WEEKS is an annual mourning period that falls out in the summer. This is when we mourn the destruction of the Holy Temple and our launch into a still-ongoing exile.

The period begins on the 17th of the Hebrew month of Tammuz, a fast day that marks the day when the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans in 69 CE.

It reaches its climax and concludes with the fast of the 9th of Av, the date when both Holy Temples were set aflame. This is the saddest day of the Jewish calendar, and it is also the date that many other tragedies befell our people.

The final Nine Days of the Three Weeks are a time of intensified mourning. Starting on the first of Av, we refrain from eating meat or drinking wine, and from wearing freshly laundered clothes.

9 AV is a more stringent fast than 17 Tammuz. It begins at sunset of the previous evening, when we gather in the synagogue to read the Book of Lamentations. Besides fasting, we abstain from additional pleasures: washing, applying lotions or creams, wearing leather shoes, and marital relations. Until midday, we sit on the floor or on low stools.
